

Lindi McCaffrey

Hi, I'm Lindi McCaffrey. Originally from North Carolina, I moved to Pittsburgh 10 years ago. I have 2 children who attend Jubilee: Avalene in 3rd grade and Flynn in Kindergarten.

Out of high school, I attended the University of North Carolina at Wilmington for a degree in Communication Studies/English. After which I went on to receive my masters in Journalism at Regent University. I freelanced for local publications after finishing school, but found my skill set was best suited in management. After a few years in retail management, I got my real estate license and moved into property management. The best part about working in the general public is meeting new people and connecting, something that I feel has translated well into joining the Jubilee community.

Currently we attend church at Berean Fellowship Church, but we join our friends at MLEPC for many events. We feel as if we have 2 church homes sometimes! Over the years, Jubilee has become more than just a school for us. The people and the community, they are family to us. I have been serving at Jubilee since my daughter started here in Kindergarten, and it is an honor to continue to support Jubilee by serving on the Board of Trustees.
