

KEITH ENGLEKA and his wife Tina enrolled their first child in kindergarten at Jubilee Christian School, and both were won over by the quality of the education, the dedication to Christian faith-based learning, and the close community provided by the school. Subsequently, Keith and Tina proceeded to enroll their second child at JCS, and both children attended and enjoyed JCS through 7th grade.

Keith and his family are members of Mt. Lebanon Evangelical Presbyterian Church, where Keith serves as an elder and is currently active with the youth ministry at the church. His wife Tina served on the JCS board while their children were enrolled at the school.

Keith is a graduate of Lehigh University and the University of Pittsburgh, and he is employed as a metallurgical engineer in the steel industry.

Keith serves as the liaison between Jubilee Christian School and Mt. Lebanon Evangelical Presbyterian Church, helping to foster the relationship between the school and the church, and seeking opportunities where the two organizations can work together to share the promise and the hope of Jesus Christ to the surrounding communities.
